NDPA Re-Commitment Forms Sent Home Today.

Family forms were sent home today regarding your families continued 2008-09 enrollment plans at NDPA. Our first lottery "Open Enrollment" period will close on February 15th. We have several families desiring to join us and we need to know your commitment of continued enrollment before we fill available openings. Forms must be returned by February 8th to insure your students' spot and any potential spots for siblings are not given to someone new. Remember, if you already have students attending NDPA you DO NOT need to enter the lottery for other siblings to attend. Just return our form and they are already on or added to the preferred sibling list. We look forward to your prompt reply.

Report Cards Sent Home Today.

Report cards are yours to keep. Please sign and return the envelope so we know you have received this important document.

SCIENCE FAIR

REMEMBER YOUR REGISTRATION IS DUE NEXT TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 5TH.

Science Fair Tip of the Week: Keep your project simple, and make it about something you love. Like to bake cupcakes? What happens if you forget to add baking soda or baking powder, and why? Like to play music? Why do longer and thicker strings on a guitar or piano make lower notes than shorter, thinner strings? Questions? Contact Larisa Page at 497-9387 or e-mail her at risieroo@netscape.com.

It's Time to Get Volunteering!!!!

For the month of February we are going to do something a little different and also fun. We are going to have a volunteer hours contest for each classroom. The classroom with the most hours will receive a great prize. I know that some of you have more than one student, so each time that you do volunteer hours at home or at the school in the month of February write down your hours. If you do more than 1 hour you can split it between all your students and give each one a ½ hour or an hour and so on. The Volunteer hour sheets will remain at the POET desk where they are now. The class with the most hours will receive a great prize. So get volunteering!!!!!!!!!!!! If you have any questions please call Valori Miles @ 458-1011 or Milesfamily6plus1@comcast.net.
