

Friday notes on Thursday, April 10, 2008

North Davis Preparatory Academy

www.northdavisprep.org

Parents Remember:

NO SCHOOL.....Friday, April 11, 2008

URGENT AFTER-SCHOOL DRAMA NOTICE!!!

Thank you for your participation in the after-school drama program. There is a need to change the dates for the last few drama sessions and performance. Following is a list of the new dates and times:

Thursday, April 17 3:00-4:00
Agenda: costumes, props, sets

Wednesday, April 23 3:00-4:00
Agenda: costumes, props, sets

Thursday, April 24 2:00-2:30
Agenda: Performance assembly for K-2,
Family members wishing to attend

Please send your students to school in tan shorts or a tan skirt on the day of the performance.

All students will keep their costume pieces - drama t-shirt, lei, hair clip, and grass skirt.

--submitted by Erinne Roundy

!VIVAN LOS LIBROS!

Invitations to the event of the year have been sent, so watch your mailbox and send in your ticket order form. Then, get ready to have fun as we Celebrate Literacy through Art, !Vivan Los Libros!, NDPA's 3rd annual Art Auction.

The Top 5 reasons the Art Auction Committee wants you to attend: (drum roll, please)...

- 5 - Killer deals on gift baskets donated by area merchants.
- 4 - An evening to meet and socialize with other parents from the school.
- 3 - Getting your Christmas shopping done by May 3rd!
- 2 - A night out attending the ONLY fundraiser we do at NDPA.
- 1 - You may be the one to walk away with a one-of-a-kind piece of art from your child's class.

Join us May 2nd, 6:00 pm, at the Davis Conference Center. You won't want to miss it!!

--submitted by Kim Valeika

Design-a-Centerpiece Contest

The Art Auction Committee needs your help. Plus, it's a chance for you to win 1 ticket for your parent or adult family member to the 3rd Annual NDPA Art Auction to be held on May 2nd.

It's simple... In the lobby on the POET desk is a terra cotta pot which has been decorated in the style of Eric Carle, author of the Very Hungry Caterpillar, Very Quiet Cricket, Brown Bear, Brown Bear What Do You See?, Very Grouchy Ladybug, etc. We need you to design your own terra cotta pot in the style of Eric Carle. Our fabulous decorator will then add flowers and filler to each pot and they will grace the tables as centerpieces for our event. These student-made centerpieces will also be available for purchase at the art auction.

Submit your 7" terra cotta pot to the POET desk, fill out the entry form, fold it, and place inside your pot. Submissions are due by April 18th at 1:30 pm. Winners will be judged on originality, independent work, and use of the Eric Carle theme. There will be two categories: K-3rd grade and 4th-6th grade, with a winner in each category. J & J Nursery, our flower supplier for the event, has many of the required size pots in stock if you are wondering where to purchase one. If you have any questions, contact Necia Wiggins necia@aol.com or Kim Valeika lilys_mom@yahoo.com, 546-4927.

--submitted by Kim Valeika

Hurray for Miss Utah

Two years ago Miss Utah, Julia Bachison, visited NDPA to help us kick off our Gold Medal Program. She visited us again when we reached our goal and walked the Gold Medal Mile with our students. She will be competing tomorrow, Friday April 11th, live on NBC at 7 pm, for the title of Miss USA.

Ms. Bachison has the distinction of being the first woman in the state's history to win both the Miss Utah USA and Miss Utah titles. Tune in and cheer on Ms. Bachison. We wish her the very best of luck!

--submitted by Kim Valeika