Notes for Principal Gomberg:

“Morning Word Study Intervention” Plans Parent Training Session.

We are pleased to announce a training opportunity for parents to assist students during school intervention time and at home. Mariam Herrmann, our highly qualified “Intervention Specialist” will conduct a two day training session for any parent who desires to learn the techniques to better help the children. This training is also available to any qualified substitute who would like to participate and help with students while substituting in the school. The dates of the training are scheduled for Wednesday, November 7th and Thursday, November 8th for 3-1/2 hours each morning. Please call or stop by the office to sign up.

Thanks for your help!

Thanks to the families who donated CD players to the “Read Naturally” program. They are VERY helpful. We are still looking for some additional donations. So . . . , if you have a used, but functioning CD player that has been replaced by new technology, please consider donating it to the school. These electronic tools are essential to our students reading success. Just bring them to the office with an attached name so we can be sure you receive a thank you receipt for your donation.

Looking for an Eagle Project or Service Project idea?

NDPA is in need of an item that might be ideal for someone you know to participate in. We need a portable organization unit to house the school “Lost and Found” . For additional information, contact Mrs. Linford at the school.

POET Updates:

Red Ribbon Week is Fast Approaching.

“Look at Me, I’m Drug Free!” the annual Red Ribbon Week coming the week of October 22nd through the October 26th. Be sure to check your students back pack today for the following:

- A red ribbon to tie on your car antenna to show support for being drug free.
- An essay and artwork contest page for your student to participate in. (Please have your student return these to be displayed during red ribbon week.)

- Prizes for first, second and third place will be awarded for each grade level.

Come, take a look at all the student talent and commitment we have at NDPA to be “Drug Free” Be sure to check next week’s Friday notes with additional activities to support this important week.

Barnes and Noble Day

The winter holidays are getting closer. Are you ready? Well, here’s a way to help - join us November 17th anytime from 10 am to 4 pm at the Layton Barnes and Noble for an in-store book fair. It’s simple!

- 1- Shop anytime that day at Barnes and Noble.
- 2- When you pay for your purchase, present them with

A voucher (will be sent home in Nov.) and we earn a % of the total voucher sales for the day. Vouchers will be accepted anytime that day 9 am to closing. Easy! And anything you buy counts (excluding food from the cafe, B&N memberships, and gift card purchases) towards our total. You can also prepay for items (books, movies, CD’s) and if they total $25+, they can be shipped to your home FREE!

We will have exciting events in the store that day: our very own choir will be performing, special story-times, holiday crafts for the kids, cafe samples, and student presentations.

Please let family, friends, and neighbors know about this exciting event and watch for more information in upcoming Friday Notes.

CARNIVAL OCTOBER 20

Don’t forget to mark your calendars for POET’s Fall Carnival on October 20th from 4:00 to 7:00 pm. This is on a Saturday. The Carnival will take place at the school. Your participation is fun for the kids, and it helps the school! Money earned in ticket sales goes right to the school (after Carnival expenses). By popular request the booths will not be run by the parents this year, so you can enjoy the carnival with your children! High school students will be helping to run the games and booths. This is going to be a fun event, so you won’t want to miss it! FILL OUT AND RETURN ATTACHED ORDER FORM AS SOON AS POSSIBLE TO BUY TICKETS IN ADVANCE. Tickets can also be purchased at the door, but order early and avoid the hassle! Tickets are 25 cents each, or 20 for $5.00. Make checks out to “POET”. Get ready for the fun!
